

arcada

Arcada is designed for windows, arches and architraves, and can also be used to highlight doorways, statues, and reliefs. The light distribution reflects the fact that the ends of the diffuser are much shorter than the sides, creating a clearly defined arch shape. The indirect lighting neatly follows the underside of the arch, without producing glare or light pollution.

Materials

Aluminium body